MAYOR TO ATTEND PIKE YOUTH SOCCER CLUB'S IMPD OUTREACH EVENT

IMPD SGT. MATTHEW GRIMES INVITED TO HELP COACH YOUTH IN SOCCER TRAINING, HUMAN DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM

INDIANAPOLIS – Mayor Greg Ballard will attend the Pike Youth Soccer Club (PYSC) and Community Through Youth Sport Foundation (CTYSF) soccer training and human development program on Tuesday, Sept. 7, 2010. IMPD Sgt. Mathew Grimes, community relations unit supervisor, recently accepted an invitation to assist PYSC Soccer Director Dan Kapsalis and Indiana Youth Soccer Association Director of Player Development Vince Ganzberg coach PYSC's Fall 2010 participants in the under 5, under 6 and under 8 age divisions on Tuesday.

The soccer program teaches life skills including responsibility, respect, connection, wellness and integrity. The program aims to help develop good citizens through youth sports, improve community relations, and keep youth engaged in sports to reduce obesity rates and to teach and embrace healthy eating and exercise habits.
