

Hoosier Digest

Nov 21, 2010

SOCCER Three coaches set for Hall

Two current area high school soccer coaches and one former coach will be inducted into the Indiana Soccer Coaches Hall of Fame at the 2010 All-State Banquet at 1 p.m. today at The Fountains Banquet & Conference Center in Carmel. Carmel girls coach Frank Dixon (387 wins and eight state titles in 20 years) and Pike boys coach Rob Jordan (330 wins in 20 years) are the active inductees-to-be. Former Carmel boys coach Dan Kapsalis, now director of soccer at the Pike Soccer Club, also will be honored. Kapsalis coached 17 years at Carmel, winning one state title and 342 games, before stepping down after the 2006 season.

Reprinted by permission. To read the entire article visit www.indystar.com